PUTNAM COUNTY, TN – Woman Arrested for Narcotics Possession

Date: Thursday, October 9, 2014 at 2:45 p.m.

Location: Corner of Pippin Road and County Farm Road in Putnam County, Tennessee

Incident:

Sarah Rae Scott, 24, a homeless woman, was charged with disorderly conduct and three counts of simple possession after she was found to be in possession of 32 Oxycodone tablets, 9 Opana pills, a small baggie of white powder that later tested positive for methamphetamine, and four syringes. All of the items seized are classified as Schedule 2 narcotics.

The incident began as a call from local residents complaining that an intoxicated woman was staggering down Pippin Road in the middle of the afternoon. By the time Putnam County Deputies Matt McDaniel and Linda Jordan located Scott, she was at the corner of Pippin Road and County Farm Road in Putnam County. When the deputies took her into custody due to outstanding capias for probation violation, Scott became aggressive and verbally abusive to the officers resulting in the additional charge of disorderly conduct. The deputies then proceeded to conduct a search of her purse and found the narcotics, resulting in three additional counts of simple possession.

Scott was booked into Putnam County Jail with a total bond of $1,000.00. She is scheduled to appear in court on Friday, October 10. The investigation continues. Anyone with information on this incident is encouraged to call the Putnam County Sheriff's Office at (931) 528-8484.
