PUTNAM COUNTY, TN – Citizen's Academy Graduates Class #1 With Distinction

The Putnam County Sheriff's Office graduated 30 members in its first Citizen's Academy class on Tuesday night, May 5, 2015. The Sheriff and his entire command staff were on hand to congratulate the graduates, which included business, civic and philanthropic leaders from throughout the community.

Beginning March 5, 2014, classes will held on Tuesday nights for ten consecutive weeks at the Putnam County Sheriff's Office located at 421 E. Spring Street in Cookeville, TN, from 6:30 – 9:30 p.m. Each night highlighted a different unit or division of the Sheriff's Office with a combination of classroom instruction and hands-on demonstrations and activities. All classes were taught by Sheriff's Office personnel.

“This is a great opportunity to learn about your Putnam County Sheriff's Office,” said Sheriff Eddie Farris. “Training sessions and lectures focus on the various aspects of law enforcement with emphasis on the duties and responsibilities of your local Sheriff's Department. I would encourage everyone to attend.”

The Academy is free and open to all Putnam County residents 18 years of age or older. To sign up for this academy or for more information, call the Putnam County Sheriff's Office at (931) 528-8484. Seating is limited, so call today.
