National Law Enforcement Memorial Honors Putnam County Deputies

PUTNAM COUNTY, TN – As of November 15th, the names of fallen Putnam County Sheriff's Office Deputies James Jackson Lee (End Of Watch: 8/9/1899) and Orville Amos Moss (End Of Watch: 4/22/1930) have been engraved on the National Law Enforcement Memorial in Washington, D.C. The names will be formally dedicated on May 13, 2017 at the 29th Annual Candlelight Vigil during National Police Week. The family members have been invited to attend the ceremony next year and will be escorted by someone from the Putnam County Sheriff's Office.

"I am deeply grateful to these deputies and their families for their service and commitment to our community," said Sheriff Eddie Farris. "I am also honored that their names will be included on a national monument that memorializes the ultimate sacrifice that so many law enforcement officers make each year. It should remind us all to give the men and women in law enforcement our respect and cooperation. Because of them, we can feel safe in our community every day."
